

Presentation of the next report

On January 8, 2019 at the faculty of Energy Supply of Agriculture and Water Resources the work carried out in 2018 on the organization of research activities, preparation of scientific and pedagogical professionals, work with talented students, introduction of research results into the educational and production process were discussed. The vice-rector for scientific researches and innovations Pr. T.Sultonov, the head of the department for innovations and training researchers Pr. Sh.Imomov and the faculty team participated in the discussion. The dean of the faculty Pr. A.Isoqov made a report on the work carried out last year.

